Featured Entertainment:

Brian Yamamoto & Dane Matsumura

Brian Yamamoto is soft-spoken off-stage, but an explosive singer on-stage. His performing styles range from rhythm and blues, country, gospel, to Hawaiian. He has sung with Local Mojo for the last five years and is a popular solo artist whose performances have supported organizations such as the ACLU and other progressive causes.

Dane Matsumura joined the Asian American band "Hiroshima" from 1978 to 1982 and played on their first two albums, titled "Hiroshima" and "Odori." In 1981, he received a Grammy nomination for "Best R&B Instrumental Performance" as one of the co-writers of "Winds of Change" from Hiroshima's second album. He resides in Gardena, CA and is currently a freelance bassist.
