

ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN WOMEN LAWYERS ALLIANCE

AND CALIFORNIA ASIAN PACIFIC
AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE: HOW GENDER AND SEX INTERSECT WITH RACIALIZED VIOLENCE AGAINST ASIAN AMERICANS

Renee Tajima-Peña
Professor,
Asian American Studies, UCLA

Jenn Fang
Founder,
Reappropriate

Moderated By:
Karin H. Wang
Executive Director,
UCLA School of Law
David J. Epstein Program in Public Interest Law & Policy

Helen Zia
Activist and Author

Join our expert panelists as we explore some of the complex issues surrounding the intersection of race, gender, and sex, including how the legal system has failed to account for racialized violence against Asian American women, how misogyny is inseparable from racism against Asian American women, and how the sexualization of Asian American men and women plays a role in anti-Asian violence.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26, 2021
5:00 PM - 6:30 PM

FREE EVENT - REGISTER AT:
<http://bit.ly/apawlamay2021>

CO-SPONSORED BY:

UCLA School of Law David J. Epstein
Program in Public Interest Law & Policy